

GITAM Deemed to be University

The policy of GITAM is to minimise plastic use, insisting on single use plastic in case of necessity. It creates awareness by putting the signboards for “No Plastic”. It always looks for alternatives in the occasions where generally plastic items are preferred to use.

From the food courts, the plastic bottles were collected by placing separate bins.

