

GITAM Deemed to be University

- ☞ GITAM pays more than the living wage prescribed by the government for all its employees.
- ☞ According to the present/latest government norms, Planning Commission's estimated poverty line for a family of five, the all India poverty line in terms of consumption expenditure would amount to about Rs. 4,080 per month in rural areas and Rs. 5,000 per month in urban areas.

- ☞ At GITAM University, all employees receive competitive compensation packages that encompass conveyance, housing, medical benefits, and employee provident fund, among other benefits.
- ☞ The university is dedicated to upholding the principles of Gandhian philosophy, prioritizing the welfare of its workforce, and ensuring that their salaries align with industry standards.
- ☞ By offering attractive compensation, the university attracts talent from diverse fields. To instil a strong sense of ownership among its employees, the university ensures timely and consistent monthly payments.
- ☞ Every month, on the last working day salaries will be credited into the employee's bank account.
- ☞ GITAM adopted transparent, digital payment system.
